HILDREN AT HORSE SHOW FROM BOXES AND THE RING SIDE THEY WATCH THE HORSES.

Correctly Gowned, They Sit for Admiration and Join the Promenade No Ponies, However, Before the Judges - Heavy Draught Animals Are the Feature of the Judging.

Nothing on the official programme ansounced that it would be "children's day" to-day, at the Horse Show in the Garden, but there were so many youngsters in the boxes and along the rail in the early hours that the omission must have been due simply from carelessness on the part of the programme maker. The young hopeful some families evidently must learn his horse fore along with the literature of the fifth Reader and the art of spelling words of three or more syllables. It is quiet in that conditions are ideal for visitors of tender years. They get their first dose of JAMES HEENAN, AGED EIGHTY- PIAN IS NOT TO KEEP CROP OUT the horse show in mild form, so to speak. ro-day they saw class after class of heavy draft horses and Clydesdales go cavorting about the ring, and after that they saw ponies that were suitable to breed polo All the While He Has Been in Charge Neither Is There Any Scheme on Foot ponies, and thoroughbreds that were suitable to become hunters. That was enough for one sitting. And there was just enough of a crowd of grown-ups around the ring o show them how to mind their P's and Q's at a show of this kind. But in this respect, more than one youngster did not have to be taught. There are ome boys and girls there who could have given pointers to the most correct grownup. No modishly-gowned woman ever displayed less concern about things in general udges stand-although (whether she - saw muntered, it was so done that rail-birds formance. It was instinctively correct. And the president, Lewis L. Clarke. when at length the fluffy boa was gathered owner of the boa went out, you knew that there had been a departure of importance.

The male of the species was just the least bit less apt. He "caught on" slower. He really allowed himself to become quite excited when one Clydesdale stallion showthe oval enclosure, dragging his master instead of simply accepting a thing as so. Values of the bank, and those who know manipulate values in any way, the de-because it was so. Why did those men praided in a hundred little knobs each ited of yarn? For all his borown derby and his walking stick, he lacked to my father could, anyway," said therefrom; in fact, they expected nothing (6.) Dr Lasker has the lacked to make the lacked to make the lacked to make the lacked to make the lacked the

Not that the youngsters did not enjoy is a monotonous life, at best, and I am zation scheme. The plan is not one of what they saw; you could see that they did afraid that the details of his life would not enjoy every, bit of it, but in a way that did prove interesting to most people.

Stand out very distinctly for the plan, which is not one of (7.) Mr. Capablanca to deposit $2,000 with to-day, of a report of the committee on a guarantee that he general administration of city affairs, the stakeholder as a guarantee that he general administration, which will astruck or some other worthy vehicle of com-ging around the tan tark in the hope of seeing strings of porters going through the ton will not be held back from market- five days per week, each play day to conhaving a blue rosette linned to his bridle, streets carrying bags of gold. There is certainly something incongruous in the sight of a Clyderdale on exhibition

Convigham Brothers, Wilkes Barre, Pa. war, and I have often heard my father States, which would be first to pass on a contestants, the nearest one of these um-Class 26—Judging three Clydesdale stall tell about it. Mr. Coc. in whose service large financial plan of such a nature, said: the nearest one of these um-lions, three years old. First prize, $150, my father spent practically his entire life— we are in sympathy with the scheme so who protests to forward a copy of his claim. We are in sympathy with the scheme so to the planter. None to the defendant, who shall put in his de-ham Brothers. Wilkes Barre, Pa. ham Brothers, Wilkes Barre, Pa. publican Class 25—Judging two Clydesdale stal-

L. I.; third prize, $25. Pinne, August Bel- well as father, the bank was, indeed, every cotton will be accepted except from plant thing.

Class 135-Judging thirty thoroughbred horses, suitable to become hunters not under three and not exceeding seven years and not under 15 hands 3 inches Prizes presented by F. Ambrose Clark of Hempstead, L. I. First prize, cup (value $150) and $100 cash. Sally Coombes. F Ambrose Clark, Hempstead, L. I; second prize, $100. Demineer, C. F. Levin, Avon N Y; third prize, $50, Banco, C. F. Levin, Avon, N. Y.

Guardsman a Would-Be Suicide. Arthur A. Taylor, thirty-five years old, a member of the First Battalion, Field Artillery, N. G., N. Y., and a veteran of the Spanish-American war, was discharged in spanish-American war, was discharged in the West Side Court this morning, after he had been arraigned for attempting suicide last night. Taylor was found unconscious in the hallway of his sister-in-law's home. in the hallway of his sister-in-law's home No. 320 West Forty-fourth Street, last night and said, after he had been revived, that he had taken liquid potash.

A FRED BENJAMIN & Cos Tailor-made clothes

. We tested the Shawl Collar Ulster

last year—with excellent results; this year's model is even better; $25 to $55, ready to wear.

> The man with decided ideas of style often finds his exact views anticipated here.

Fith Ave Building Broadway Con 24th St

on Madison Square Garden in the morn-ing although the judging goes on as usual. IN ONE BANK 57 YEARS TO AID COTTON GROWERS

OF THE MARKET.

the Supply for an Advance—Banks to Advance Planter $25 a Bale.

ADIANCE TO GROWERS.

the proposal is simply to advance growers who bind themselves to curtail output next year by 25 per cent. Only in so far as the planters pledge themselvs to do this is the plan assured of success. By reducing next year's acreage to that extent the 1912 cotton crop will be lowered to eleven or twelve million bales, at least a full million below consumptive requirements.

Prices will be advanced, and the cotton futures purchased now under Col. Thompson's scheme will be settled at $5 or $10 a bale more than they were bought for. No one could predict to-day whether a sufficient amount of cotton would be turned over to the syndicate to be held back from the market in the manner contemplated as the attitude of the Southern planters toward the curtailment pledge has not yet

ONE, HAS THAT RECORD.

of the Vaults of the American Exchange National - Fellow Employees, Including His Son, Give Him a Gold Watch in Celebration.

There may be another man besides James. Heenan who can boast of having spent on the other greeted the announcement toof a single bank, but, if there is, the man protect cotton-planters against further de- insistent over technicalities as if he were DAVIS CUP PLAYERS IN AUCKLAND than one little miss who sat primly in a OI a single pank, but, it there is, the market the rules committee preparing for a football box chair clasping a programme in a gloved has not appeared to make good his claim. from its present 9-cent level to one of season. hand and gazing, in the direction of the It was in 1854 that Heenan entered the 12 or 13 cents. In financial circles, as Witness the statement, printed hereinalemploy of the American Exchange Na- well as in the cotton trade, the launching Over her shoulders fell a fluffy fur collar, tional Bank, one of a small number of of this scheme last night by Col. Robert and the hat she had on was simply a small banking institutions flourishing in New W. Thompson attracted deepest interest, and the hat she had on was simply a small panking institutions nourishing in hour so confused had been the published addition of the one Mrs. So-and-So might York at that period, and yesterday, fifty-accounts of the proposition that period. she arose to saunter around the rail, the cluding his son, who is paying-teller-pre- pool had been formed to buy two million match to end then, she arose to saunter around the fail, the oluding his son, who is paying-teller—prebales of cotton and hold them off the marthe mare arising was an event. When she sented him with a gold watch and chain, ket until the price should rise from 9 to the match should extend to be played. "as a token of their personal esteem and 12 of 13 cents. at her. There was not a flaw in the per- good wishes," to quote from the speech of Emphatic denial of such a pool was made anyhody else; but he was never a conversa- of the Stock Exchange house of S. H. Pell to be declared drawn. tional person, and with age has come con- & Co. He declared that no $50,000,000 forces to prevent him from being annoyed. several million bales from off the market to the backers. All of Heenan's fifty-seven years of employ- [indefinitely, so that prices might be forced] vaults is not conducive to conversation sound in every way, but that its succ derby, and his walking stick, he lacked the son, Frank Heenan, himself a gray from the market until the farmer showed a mine the beginning of the match and the true horseman. He was perhaps more conscious of the part he was playing than the see, father is a very old man now, and he of acreage next spring. scious of the part he was playing than the has been in the business so long that I were overlocked the one essential feature least two weeks notice for any change of stand out very distinctly for him. Banking of the plan, which is in nowise a valori-notion of boys and girls, But what right and he entered the employ of Mr. George are some to Dr. Lasker if Mr. Capablanca, after plan of city government almost identical have old-fashioned notions to inject them. S. Cos in 1845; When Mr. Coe was elect not going to premising to deposit his share of the stakes with the commission form. The plan is stives into a horse show?, Out upon them to of the American, Exchange in one to the part in any many processed at the appointed time, does not do so.

Even the horses must be made to conform National Bank in 1854, he took my father to purely a publication in the (8;) Should Dr. Lasker not deposit Clydesdale, for instance, a horse that is been carrying on a private banking busibuilt on Dreadnought lines., His proper ness, and made my father head of the place in the order of things, you would vaults. At that time, and for many years say, would be at the head of a brewery afterward, in fact, until about ten years ago this was the biggest bank in New York. In those days the banking business ers $25 a bale on cotton which they will turned to the backers. Instead, he is groomed and combed with- was carried on very differently. There turn over to committees of the new orin an inch of his life, and his mane and was no such thing as a Clearing House, ganization, which will thereupon take the tall are "dressed" in the latest style of and the balances had to be settled in per- warehouse receipts for this cotton to the an hour. equine goiffure, and away he is sent jog- son, with gold. I, myself, can remember banks and secure loans thereon. The cot-

"They say that my father has carried a committees will "hedge" by purchasing each, one in the afternoon, the other one greater total of actual money than any future contracts, to be held against the at night, after an interval of no less than The thought occurs that this animal would other bank employee in the country, and time when prices shall again have risen two hours. If a game is finished in a secmuch prefer to be exercising those im- I can believe it. In later times, when to the desired twelve or thirteen-cent level, tion, the next game to be begun in the next preme Court for a ruling on the decision mense haunches hauling something. Yet it transfers to the Sub-Treasury could be As this is done, the contracts for future section. would be a shame to soil all the handiwork made in greenbacks. I have known him to delivery of cotton will replace warehouse of the stable with the sweat of a day's toll. carry a balance of $6,000,000 on his per- receipts in the bank collateral envelopes. The United States, the other one for Eu-Class 28-Judging five Clydesdale mares, son. At the time of the civil war a con- Contrary to belief in many, the banks rope. In case of need, an umpire residing First prize, $150, Pearl terence of bunkers was held in this bank are not hostile to the project. An officer in South America or in Cuba to be named of Fairfield, Fair Acre Farms, New Market, to arrange the loan that was to enable in one of the biggest banks of the United also, if any dispute arises between the N. J.; second prize, $75, Purple Heather, the Federal Government to carry on the second prize, $75, Purple Heather, the Federal Government to carry on the second prize, $75, Purple Heather, the Federal Government to carry on the second prize, $75, Purple Heather, the Federal Government to carry on the second prize, $75, Purple Heather, the Federal Government to carry on the second prize, $75, Purple Heather, the Federal Government to carry on the second prize arises between the second prize arises are arranged are arises are arranged a publican party, and exerted considerable of the banks have been asked to subscribe fence in writing, forwarding a copy of it lions, four years old or over. First prize

Mikado, Fair Acre Farms. New Market.
N. J.

Class 29—Judging Clydesdale stallions impression on him as a strong have given their hearty consent to 4t. The Mikado, Fair Acre Farms, New Market, N. J..

Class 29—Judging Clydesdale stallions for the championship cup, presented by Alfred C. Vanderbilt, for the best stallions entered in preceding classes. Won by Evader, Fair Acre Farms, New Market, N. J.; reserve, Flisk Prince, Conyugann Brothers, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Class 19—Judging nine pony mares, suitable for breeding polo ponies First prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; third prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; third prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; third prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; third prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; third prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; third prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; third prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; third prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; third prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; third prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; third prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; third prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; third prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; there were an expected that the bank York city; there are no prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; the point point to him but the bank First it was a part of the bank that he is just the proposal is not to "bull" the cotton in the point point to be prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; the point point to be point to be prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; the point point to be prize, $25. Rosalia, Point Judith Polo Club, New York city; the point point to be York city; second prize, $50. Diamond Wet. One went away with the impression that crop, however, it is predicted that the plan ford, William Post & Son East Williston in the minds of the two Hechans son as will mark prices up from 2 to 3 cents. No

$35.00 and up COMPARISON OF

WHEN CHESS MASTERS VIE DR. LASKER, CHAMPION: DICTATES

Multitude of Conditions in World's Championship Match - Umpires from Both Europe and the United States No Offence to Asia and Africa Is Intended by Players.

Dr. Emanuel Lasker is going to have a same or so of chess with Mr. Capablanca, Capablanca to wire to Dr. Lasker the world, and the gentleman, whose name, the first time you hear it, sounds something ing deck after everybody else had gone, wants to be champion. Hence the proposed as football. The contest may be longer than a chance same of cricket in dear old-England, which may begin in one reign and end in another. The likelihood of this is so great that provision is made in the preliminary treaty for the disposal of the interest which will accrue, between moves at the rate of 4 per cent, a year, on the stakes put up by Dr. Lasker and Mr. Capablanca. As to the main continents of the world that shall furnish umpires only Europe and to Form a $50.000,000 Pool to Hold worth America are mentioned as a matter uron in emergency. Approve Colonel Thompson's Plan Here is the protocol, as issued this day: When one plays chess for the championship of the world, he imposes on himself and his opponent as stringent conditions, Ridicule on the one hand and enthusiasm terms, and rules, and insists upon as good security for stakes, as if he were battling more than half a century in the employ day of the formation of a syndicate to for first place in the prize ring. He is as > ter, by Dr. Emanuel Lasker, concerning Capablanca.

Says Dr. Lasker:

have worn, and not so much smaller at seven years afterward, on the occasion of ty as to its actual purpose was general, not counting. But should neither of the the steamer Zealandia, were given a civic that. This pupil had learned her lesson his eighty-first birthday, the officers of The majority of people in Wall Street contestants have scored six points after rapidly. She was letter perfect. While the sat in that box she adorned it. When the bank, and his fellow employees—in— understood that a $50,000,000 speculative thirty games have been completed, the jority of points to be winner of the match, to-day by H. H. Pell, who proposes to col-except when the scores should be 1 to 0; Heenan is still able to come down to the laborate with Col. Thompson in his plan 2 to 1, or 3 to 2. In these cases, as well up and the programme laid aside, and the bank every morning, and stay as long as and who, with Thompson, is a member as in case of equality of points, the match

> (3.) The winner of the match to be de firmation of the habit of reticence. Indeed, had been pledged to carry forward the clared chess champion of the world, and Union, addressed about three hundred longso fast is the grip of this habit upon him scheme, and that no valorization of cot- to receive the total stakes. In case of a shoremen to-day on the advantages of winthat he cannot be persuaded to talk to a lon was to be attempted. Furthermore, he drawn issue, Dr. Lasker retains the title ning strikes without violence, and on the stranger, and every man in the bank joins said, no attempt would be made to hold of champion and the stakes are returned bad effect of using liquor. Phillips spoke

(4.) The games of the match are the propment have been spent in charge of the higher, nor would there be an effort to erty of Dr. Lasker, who is at liberty to low, comfortable reading room which the after him. He asked more questions, too, vaults of the bank, and those who know manipulate values in any way. He deleem to his advantage.

(8) Should Dr. Lasker not deposit the erto practiced in San Francisco. stakes agreed upon or should he fail to The administration of the city and counname the locality of the match within a ty affairs will be in the hands of eighteen year from present date, Mr. Capablanca is committees, each supervisor being the head to be declared the chess champion of the of a committee. world, and the stakes deposited shall be re-

THE TIME LIMIT.

(9.) The time limit shall be twelve moves (10.) The play to proceed no oftener than on the contrary, it will be sold and the sist of two sections of two hours and a half

(11.) Two umpires to be named, one for (12.) The play shall be governed by a director of play, who shall be in possession of a code to be agreed upon, the game to be viewed by the seconds of the players, who shall be appealed to for evidence in all cases of dispute. The director of play to decide all disputes relating to the playing of the game and the code.

(13.) Since the stakes played for in for mer matches were insufficient to compensate the players, the two principals agree to pect Avenue, Newark, N. J., claimed it toraise the stakes to a higher level. Mr.

Army-NavyFootball FRANKLIN FIELD PHILADELPHIA Saturday, November 25, 1911 the bill had not been claimed and that he SPECIAL TRAINS it. He said that he had lost the money Pennsylvania Railroad Direct to Gates of Grounds Leave Pennsylvania Station. New York 10:25 A.M., 10:45 A.M., 10:55 A.M. Parlor Cars and Dining Cars only. 10:35 A.M., Dining Car and Vestibule Conches only. Returning, leave Franklin Field thirty minutes after game. Round Trip Pullman Tickyts sold for Special Trains.

Table d'hote meals, $1.00 each.
Extra accommodations on regular trains,
Consult Time-tables.

Pullman reservations and information of C. STUDDS, D.P.A., 263 FIFTH AVENUE,
NEW YORK CITY.
Telephone: Madison Square 7900

Our Amothyst jewelry. TERMS TO CAPABLANCA.

is distinguished by originality and beauty NECKLACES $11 25 to $35000 Lineodore A. Kohn & Son JEWELLERS 321 Fifth Avenue

The doctor is now the chess champion of amount of his backing no later than two months from date of this letter and Dr. Lasker to determine the amount of the like that of the boy who stood on the burn. stakes no later than two months from date of receipt of Mr. Capablanca's wire. (14.) A stakeholder to be named. He shall hold the money until the umpire in power at the conclusion of the match tells him the Morocco affair. It is almost as serious how to disburse it. The interest that may have accrued on the stakes shall be divided by the two players evenly on the conclusion of the match:

to put in an appearance at the time ap- that the delays were just an excuse to hold names of several men. My brother, who was pointed for play, for any reason whatso us off. Finally I went to one of the di-present, turned to Mr. Gates and said: ever, the game shall begin at the appointed rectors of our company, an honest woodstime nevertheless, as if the players were man, whom I had known years before. He try. To do what you want to do would land both present; and the time limit rule shall had been to see Mr. Rockefeller, and this us in jail. Mr. Rockefeller with his $700,1 be applied also in the absence of one of is what he said to me: the players.

of certainty. South America may be called clock of the player whose turn it is to move to see him again, and he refused and I have that when I steal for a living I will steal shall be put into motion by the director of quit." play or his substitute and the game shall beginning of the match. All disputes concerning it, while it is in the making, to be decided by an umpire.

Larned, Wright, and McLoughlin Received in New Zealand.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, November 22 .-The American lawn tennis team challengers for the Dwight F. Davis international cup, William A. Larned, Maurice E. McLough-(1.) The match to be six games up, draws lin, and Beals C. Wright, who arrived on reception to-day. The Americans will proneed by rail to Wellington, whence they will go by boat to Christchurch, where the (2.) The first winner of six games to win challenge round with the Australasians will.

LABOR MAN OPPOSES VIOLENCE. London Dockworkers' Leader Tälks

to Men Along Shore. Harry Phillips, ex-president of the London Dock Workers' and Coal Porters' Trade at the Longshoremen's Rest, on Eleventh their publication in any form he may erected to combat the saloon evil was wear long red coats, and why did they call Consequently, when it came to a question was dependent entirely on the action of match or that the issue is a draw, Dr. Las- active in trade-union work. He stood on a the coats "pink" when they were red? Why, of the old bank clerk's reminiscences, his, the farmer himself, and that neither Col. ker will pay to Mr. Capablanca $250 for chair and pleaded for decent tactics among Thompson nor the firm of S. H. Pell & each game won by Mr. Capablanes and $75 longshoremen, whose reputation, said he,

NEW RULE FOR SAN FRANCISCO.

Change in Form of City Government

Adopted. SAN FRANCISCO, November 22.-By the a radical departure from any methods hith-

WANTS TOBACCO CASE OPENED.

Levy Says that Appeal Will Be Made to Supreme Court.

before the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce as the representative of the independent tobacco dealers, said to-day on his return from Washington that definite steps had been taken to apply to the Suhanded down by the United States Circuit Court in the American Tobacco case.

No date was named by Levy, but it was said that action would be taken at the earliest time possible, probably within two On what ground the Supreme Court would he asked to reopen the tobacco case was not stated.

GOT HIS LOST BILL BACK. Ten Dollar Incident on a Windy Night in Broadway.

A ten-dollar bill, lost on Broadway or October 11, was returned to-day to its owner by Rhinelander Waldo, commissioner of police. In the time that the commissioner had the money there were more than a thousand applicants for it, but none succeeded in establishing ownership until

John F. J. Sheehan of No. 814 Mount Pros-

The bill was turned over to a traffic policeman on the night of October 11 by Withelm Fleuger of Berlin, Germany, who said that the bill had blown into his face at Forty-second Street and Broadway. About a week ago Waldo received a letter from Fleuger, who said that he understood would like to have it. Then Sheehan claimed when it had blown from his hand as he stood outside a theatre. His story was investigated, and the money returned to him. Woman Teacher Attempts Suicide. After an attempt at suicide by gas in the Hotel St. Denis, an attempt that was frustrated by the hotel attaches, Miss Laidee Quirk, thirty-two years old, a school teacher, was lodged a prisoner to-day in the Mercer Street station. She is attached to Public School 122, at No. 150 First Avenue, and has lived for seven years at the Oriental apartments, No. 430 Lafavette Street. Later Miss Quirk was discharged consolidation he proposed, he would take care of us. He said he would be proud to be my partner and backer. He also said that he never speculated, and for that reason would not take any stock in the consolidation. He would just keep the bonds in the proposed Lake Superior Consolidated Iron Mine Company that we were organizing. His talk captured me, and I told him I would agree. Then he turned me over again to the Rev. Dr. Gates," Dr. Gates told him that Rockefeller was

ACCUSES MR. ROCKEFELLER

"By golly," said Merritt, "I believed him then, but now I know that Gates Hed." VEXATIOUS DELAYS.

bonds by Mr. Rockefeller were delayed for benefits. some time.

we were held back by George Wellsworth and if we would deal with him we could Murray, Mr. Rockefeller's counsel, and the remain in the company and be taken of. In preacher, Gates. In the meetings Gates order to do that he said we would have to merely tried to talk the time away. One do the will of Rocketeller, I listened in entire meeting, that cost $60 to hold, was amazement when he said that if Rockefeller wasted on a discussion of $5 that he paid protected us the stocks of others would (15.) If one of the contestants is unable to the bookkeeper. I didn't realize then be thrown down, and he mentioned the

"I went to Rockefeller, Lon, and gave him At this juncture, Mr. Reid, attorney for the Steel Corporation, asked Chairman Stan-(17.) A code to be agreed upon before the ley if he still thought this line of testimony competent in the inquiry.

he is performing the greatest public service he ever did in his life," Mr. Stanley replied.

merce law?" inquired Mr. Reid. "To humanity," was Mr. Stanley's stern

Here Mr. Merritt took up the thread of his story again and described another interview gone to New York with millions, and in those few months have lost them all, and he had with the Rev. Mr. Gates. This interview was while his stock was still up as I had gone there placing confidence in Mr. collateral with Mr. Rockefeller.

"Gates came to me," said Mr. Merritt, Mr. Rockefeller's counsel rising to his feet, feller. He has made up his mind just what as his counsel. Any such statement is an he wants done, and I have come to tell you absolute falsehood."

about it, and am proud to do if. The other "I'll answer that," said Merritt. "Weren't about it, and am proud to do it. The other you the counsel for the Consolidated Comteller's money to Chicago and gave it to out these proceedings?"
the Chicago University. I thought that was Here Chairman Stanley interrupted and

Old English Mezzotints and Stipples

NOV, SRD TO NOV. 29TH Rembraudt, Durer, Whistler, Haden, Cameron, etc.

> 569 Fifth Avenue (Windsor Arcade) could throw him and his brother out of the company to protect other interests, but as they had borne the "burden and heat" of Arrangements for the taking over of the the day, he believed they should reap the "Gates said that Mr. Rockefeller would "It was brutal," said Merritt, "the way rather deal with us," Merritt continued,

"'Mr. Gates, we've got laws in our coun-000,000 can't make us do that.'

"I turned to Gates and said: "Mr. Gates, (16.) If neither player puts in an appear, a certain number of days to do what he had you came from John D. Rockefeller. Go ince at the time appointed for play, the agreed to do with you boys. To-day I went back to John D. Rockefeller and tell him for myself.

"It was soon after this interview that I was notified that we would have twenty-four hours to take up our Rockefeller There I was with all my stocks up -stocks that I have never seen since. "The chair feels that right at this minute didn't have money enough to get home is performing the greatest public ser- with. Gates seemed to be amazed to think that I wouldn't do what he wanted me to do, and at one time told me I would have o walk home on the ties." Mr. Merritt grew excited as he told the story, and turning suddenly in his chair and facing George W. Murray, Mr. Rockefeller's counsel, he pounded the table as he declared:

"I couldn't see how in hell I could have was standing there contemplating the wreck. Murray as counsel—"
"I would like to interrupt here," and said I come from John D. Rocke- to have the witness asked if I ever acted pany, and didn't you act with me through the proudest moment of my life, but I am prouder now."

said that he didn't propose to have witnesses insulted, but he permitted the question as to whether Mr. Murray had ever tion as to whether Mr. Murray had ever The witness said that Gates outlined to acted as Merritt's personal counsel, and the ready to wear and to order.

FIFTH AVE. & 34TH ST OPPOSITE THE WALDORF ASTORIA

"Sole Agents, Alfred Dunhill Motorities, London."

TRY ONE MORE GOOD DINNER Notwithstanding your Digestion May Seem Beyond Repair, try eating anything you like, rationally and in moderation, same as when well, and while taking food sip a glass or two of

A Natural Mineral Spring Water. (Not a Laxative Water.) Immediately Promotes Good Digestion,

in Quarts, Pints, Splits. Acker, Merrall & Condit Co and aff First Class Grocers and Druggists, or Manacca Water Co., 13 Stone St., N. Y.

LONG SANG TI 293 Fifth Ave., near 31st St., N. Y CHINESE CURIO COMPANY FINE CHINESE JADE which expresses the true characteristics the foremost craftsmen of ancient times. Send for Illustrated Catalogue P.

Bookbinding If your books are shabby and require rebinding, consult HENRY BLACKWELL University Place & 10th St., N. Y. C.

Religious Motices.

114TH ANNIVERSARY of the "Society for the Relief of Poor Widows with Small Children" will be held Nov. 23, at 12 M., in the Parlor of the University Place Church.

MARGARET A. JACKSON, Secretary.

European Travel.

TRAINED NURSE, returning to Europe, would give zervices for passage. Address Box 42, care Evening Post, in the custody of her lawyer by Magistrate

Manufacturers /holesalers

Want to save $5000 on cartage, $5000 on insurance, $3000 on labor and get RENT FREE? Write and ask us "HOW?"

Bush Terminal Co. 100 Broad Street, New York City

Business Opportunities

PARTNER WANTED PARTY OWNING PROFITABLE BUSINESS ESTABLISHED TWENTY YEARS WILL TAKE IN PARTNER WITH FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS AND OPEN BRANCH IN NEW YORK. LARGE PROFITS: INVESTMENT SECURED; OPPORTUNITY AFFORDED TO WITHDRAW IF NOT SATISFIED. BOX 15, CARE EVENING POST.

Situations Wanted.

FEMALE.

AM DESIROUS of securing a position for a rapid, accurate and taithful stenographer, who as noted as assistant to afvertising manager for the past 2½ years. I recommend her services him by to any one in need of them, and would be please. Address.

J. P. O. Box 822. City. MALE

STENOGRAPHEN - Young gentlemen, there g is oxperienced, 5 years with one house, withen portunity; references, relary moderate; 140 years Reening Post.

GOLDSMITHS & JEWELERS La Vallieres All platinum, in a collection of original mountings, Fifth Ave. at Thirty-Eighth St.

E.M. Gattle & Co.

iewel studded

VALUES INVITED.